

2017 National Korean Studies Seminar – Schedule of Activities

A Korean History & Culture Seminar for American Educators

Hosted by the National Korean Studies Seminar & Korean Cultural Center, Los Angeles
Seminar venue: 5505 Wilshire Blvd. Los Angeles, CA 90036
Dates: June 26 – 30, 2017

Date	Time	Lecture Description	Presenters
Jun 26 (Mon)	08:30am – 08:40am	Introductory Comments Mary Connor will introduce Ambassador Key Cheol Lee, Consul General of the Republic of Korea Los Angeles and Nakjung Kim, Director of the Korean Cultural Center (KCCLA), the major sponsor of the National Korean Studies Seminar. She will also introduce Sung Kim, Seminar Director.	Mary Connor Program Advisor National Korean Studies Seminar Ambassador. Key Cheol Lee Consul General of the Republic of Korea in Los Angeles Sung Kim Director National Korean Studies Seminar
	08:40am – 09:00am	Consul General’s Congratulatory Remarks The Korean Consul General, Ambassador Key Cheol Lee, will deliver welcoming remarks.	Ambassador Key Cheol Lee Consul General of the Republic of Korea in Los Angeles
	09:00am -- 09:15am	Announcement Sung Kim will introduce Mary Connor, NKS Advisor, Daniel Kim, Education General Manager of KCCLA, and Assistant Director of NKS, Jini Shim. Sung Kim will briefly announce the daily schedule and introduce each presenter in the beginning of each session.	Sung Kim Director, NKS Mary Connor Program Advisor National Korean Studies Seminar
	09:15am – 10:00am (Lecture #1)	Introduction to NKS Seminar Lecture Title: What Americans Should Know About Korea Mary Connor will provide an introductory lecture to establish a framework for subsequent lectures throughout the seminar week. All participants will have access to this Power Point lecture. She will also introduce her new book, Teaching East Asia: Korea. The book will be distributed to every participant today.	Mary Connor Advisor, National Korean Studies Seminar
	10:10am – 11:00am (Lecture #2)	Early Korean History and Culture The lecture will respond to the 6th and 7th grade California History-Social Science Framework. The lecture will include information on Confucianism, the	Dr. Albert L. Park Associate Professor of History Claremont McKenna College

		Silk Road, Buddhism, Medieval Korea (allows for comparisons with Japan), influence of Korea on Japan, moveable type in Korea), and Korea's greatest king, King Sejong.
11:10am – 12:10pm (Lecture #3)	Twentieth Century Korean and East Asian History and Economic and Political Development of Korea - Post Korean War to Present The lecture will include United States and South Korea relations in preparation for the Korean War memorial ceremony at the Friendship Bell on June 29th. Topics to be covered: Conditions in East Asia during WWII, the end of Japanese occupation, the division of Korea, the Korean War, and its legacy and the vital issue of the reunification of the Korean Peninsula. Dr. Park will discuss a very significant fact about Post World War II: Korea is the only nation among 85 newly independent nations after World War II to have accomplished the democratization and economic development at the same time.	Dr. Albert L. Park Associate Professor of History Claremont McKenna College
12:10pm – 1:00pm Lunch	Lunch & Korean Food Explanation & Door Prize Jini Shim will explain the ingredients of the delicious Korean food in the lunch box. Sung Kim will explain how to apply for the LAUSD salary point or the USC Continuing Education Credit. She will also discuss the evaluation form.	Jini Shim Assistant Director National Korean Studies Seminar Sung Kim Director National Korean Studies Seminar
01:00pm – 01:55pm (Lecture #4)	Korean Traditional Music The music of Korea will be compared with Western music and the music of China and Japan. There will be live traditional music performances that include the Korean flute, the Gayagum and the Janggo drum. The instructor will explain how to read the traditional musical score of Korea.	Dr. Dong Suk Kim Adjunct Professor Ethno-Musicology, UCLA
02:00pm – 02:55pm (Lecture #5)	Pansori and Korean Dance Performances There will be an explanation of Pansori (Korea's operatic form) followed by a live performance. Won Il Kim will teach participants Arirang, Korea's most famous folk song after Pansori. Ko's Dance Institute will provide a performance of famous Korean traditional dances: Chook Won Moo and Buponoli.	Won Il Kim : Pansori Singer Sue Hee Ko : Janggo Gosu
03:00pm – 04:00pm (Hands-on activity & KCC Tour)	Drumming Lesson and Visiting the Museum The class will be divided into two groups for 30 minute Korean drumming lesson. When one group is having the lesson, the other group will visit the museum on the first floor of the Korean Cultural Center.	Dr. Dong Suk Kim Adjunct Professor Ethno-musicology, UCLA Joyce Kim Manager Public Relations and Field Trips Korean Cultural Center, LA

Date	Time	Lecture Description	Presenters
Jun 27 (Tue)	08:30am – 09:00am	Announcements Director Sung Kim will introduce Mr. Won Yi, Director of International Foundation of Korea University (IFKU), one of our very important NKSS sponsors. Mr. Won Yi, will introduce the summer program at Korea University and will distribute brochures of the program. Sung Kim will announce the daily schedule and relevant information about the LACMA tour.	Sung Kim Director National Korean Studies Seminar Won Yi Director, IFKU
	09:05am – 10:05am (Lecture #1)	Presentation of NKS Publication & Power Point Lectures and Lessons: NKS publication, In the 2nd edition of NKSS lesson book: Teaching East Asia: Korea will be online by the June seminar. Mary Connor will explain major components and lesson ideas from each chapter. She will also explain 40 PowerPoint files of NKS, which were created by Sung Kim and Mary Connor. Jini Shim will explain how to access PPT files in the e-Book version of Teaching East Asia: Korea.	Mary Connor Adviser, NKS Jini Shim Assistant Director National Korean Studies Seminar
	10:15am – 11:10am (Lecture #2)	Incorporating Korean Culture into Curriculum Dr. Oh will give further examples on how teachers can incorporate Teaching East Asia: Korea into their curriculum, mainly in English Language Arts or History/Social Studies. She will conduct a discussion with teachers about the lesson ideas.	Dr. Suzie Oh Independent Educational Consultant
	11:20pm – 12:00pm	Korean Hanbok Show Youngmi Yi will conduct the Hanbok Show (Theme: Princess' Wedding Day) by presenting the traditional and contemporary Hanboks for different occasions. Jini Shim will be the host and help teacher volunteers to do a catwalk on the runway of the stage. All participants will sing Arirang together. As time permits, there will be distribution of door prizes.	Youngmi Yi Director The Myung Won Cultural Foundation, Tea Ceremony Jini Shim Assistant Director National Korean Studies Seminar
12:00 pm – 12:30 pm	Lunch Jini Shim will explain the ingredients of the tasty Korean food in the lunch box.
	12:40pm – 01:40pm (Lecture #3)	The Art and Architecture of Korea A lecture with slides will focus on Korean traditional art and architecture. There will also be comparisons with the art and architecture of China and Japan.	Meher McArthur Asian art Curator, Author and Educator

	01:45pm – 03:40pm (Lecture #4)	Korean Folk Art Ms. Kee Soon Sung, Minhwa artist, will present the PPT file about Minhwa and the Korean traditional folk art and Jini Shim will translate her explanation. Ms. Sung will also conduct Minhwa lesson by painting a Tiger and Magpie and making a frame using construction paper, which can be easily used in the classroom. The art lesson provides an opportunity to celebrate Korean New Year.	Kee Soon Sung President of Korean Folk Art Association and Folk Artists Jini Shim Assistant Director National Korean Studies Seminar
	03:40pm – 05:00pm	LACMA Tour Present the LACMA and the Korean Art Exhibition of LACMA ※ Teachers have the option to participate in an outstanding tour of the Korean Art Gallery at LACMA. The museum is only a ten minute walk west on Wilshire from KCC to the museum.	Mariana Linker- Israeli LACMA Docent Jini Shim Assistant Director National Korean Studies Seminar

Date	Time	Lecture Description	Presenters
Jun 28 (Wed)	08:30am – 08:40am	Announcements Sung Kim will explain how to apply the LAUSD salary point and USC Extended education credit. Sung Kim will introduce Ms. Elena Paul as a facilitator of the seminar. Elena Paul will briefly announce the schedule of the day including the cooking class session. The demonstration of the cooking class will be held on the stage of Ari Hall.	Sung Kim Director National Korean Studies Seminar Elena Paul CEO Birmingham Community Charter complex Seminar facilitator
	08:40am – 09:30am (Lecture #1)	National Examination of World Language (NEWL Korean Exam) and Implementation in USA NEWL is an online proficiency-based language assessment currently available in Arabic, Korean, Portuguese and Russian languages. The exam is designed to provide a set of measures of functional proficiency in the target language for use as a predictive assessment for continued language study beyond high school and as a placement tool by American colleges and universities for entering freshmen. The presenter will explain the purpose and the benefit of NEWL Korean EXAM and its implementation in the high schools in US.	Dr. Ken Petersen Technical Director: Online Learning & Assessment American Councils for International Education
	09:35am – 10:30am (Lecture #2)	An Introduction to Hangeul and Korean Online Course Sung Kim will introduce the Hangeul system, vowel and consonant combination and sound system using the Korean Online Course level 1. Sung will also present the Introduction to the Korean Online Course and how to implement in schools in 2017-2018 school year. This online course is the pre-requisite course of the NEWL-Korean Exam, which is the replacement of AP Korean that newly approved by College Board. www.ikeneducate.org Door prize will be followed.	Sung Kim Director National Korean Studies Seminar
	10:45am – 11:35pm (Lecture #3)	An Introduction to Speaking the Korean Language for Every Day Conversation Dr. Sohn will present daily life conversation in Korean language using video clips and hands-on activities. All educators will participate in the role play in real life situations.	Dr. Sung-Ock Sohn Professor Korean Language, Department of Asian Languages and Cultures, UCLA
	11:40pm – 12:10pm Lunch 12:15pm -	Lunch & Cooking Class: Variety of Gim Bap Art Buffet Bibimbap lunch will be served. Cooking class will be followed afterwards. The world famous Korean chef, Rock Kim, will be invited from Korea. He will introduce a variety of party Gim Bap Art with various healthy organic ingredients.	Rock Hoon Kim (Rock Chef) Party Gim Bap Artist Jini Shim Assistant Director

	01:00 pm (Hands-on Activity)	The Gim Bap looks very creative and beautiful. Before the cooking session, a box lunch will be served. http://www.partygimbab.com/	National Korean Studies Seminar
	01:10pm – 02:00pm (Lecture #4)	Nineteenth and Early Twentieth Century Korean History This lecture also includes a lesson that will respond to the California History Social Science Framework and provide for the inclusion of Korea in World History in the 10th grade and is aligned to Common Core State Standards). Some of the topics that will be covered: late 19th century imperialism, colonialism, Japanese occupation and reading selections from documents and books (Lost Names and When My Name was Keoko) to understand the experience of Koreans during occupation and its legacy in East Asia and the historical background of Dokdo East Sea dispute.	Dr. Namhee Lee Professor Department of Asian Languages and Cultures, UCLA
	02:05pm – 03:00pm (Lecture #5)	An Introduction to Sijo, a Korean Poetic Form The lecture will introduce educators to the Sejong Cultural Society’s excellent website on Korea, Sijo poetry, and the Society’s annual national Sijo and literature essay contest. The participants will write their own Sijo.	Dr. Lucy Park Executive Director Sejong Cultural Society Chicago, Illinois
	03:05pm – 04:00pm (Lecture #6)	History of Korean Wave : Hallyu From the success of the Korean boy/girl bands to the worldwide craze of Korean romantic comedies, K-culture is truly the global phenomenon. The presenter will explain how contemporary Korean popular cultural products, such as music, drama and cinema, define, construct, deconstruct, or even promote the idea of ‘Korea’, reflecting the landscape of contemporary Korean history, society, and economy in variety of cultural forms.	Sherri L. Ter Molen Adjunct Instructor College of Communication DePaul University Chicago, IL Adjunct Professor

Date	Time	Lecture Description	Presenters
Jun 29 (Thu)	08:25am – 08:35am	Announcements Elena Paul will briefly announce the daily schedule that includes lectures, a field trip, book distribution, group discussions, and a dinner party event in the evening.	Elena Paul CEO Birmingham Community Charter complex Seminar facilitator
	08:35am – 09:35am (Lecture #1)	Korean Philosophy and Religion and the Role of Christianity in Korea and the United States Tom Tran will explain the history of Christianity in Korea, Daoism, shamanism, Confucianism, and Buddhism. He will also explain the influence of Christianity to the Korean-Americans’ life style and the settlement of Korean immigrants. The tour at the Korean American Association Memorial Hall will follow his lecture.	Tom Tran Doctorate Candidate Department of Asian Languages and Cultures, UCLA
	09:40am (Field Trip Bus) 10:00am – 11:00am (Lecture #2)	Field Trip: Visiting the Korean National Association Memorial Hall 1374 W Jefferson Blvd, LA, CA 90007 The presenter will explain Korean immigrant history and the famous Korean patriot, Chang Ho Ahn, his leadership, influence on the Korean American community, and role in the Korean Independence Movement. Korean United Presbyterian Church (1905-today) 1374 W Jefferson Blvd, LA, CA 90007 TEL : 323-733-2922	Young Shin Kwon Chairman Korean National Association Memorial Foundation Jini Shim Assistant Director
	11:00 - 11:45am	Travel Time to San Pedro. Arrive at the Friendship Bell.
	11:50am – 12:20pm (Lecture #3)	The Historical Background of Friendship Bell and Relationship between US and Korea Mr. Ernest Lee will present the historical background of the Friendship Bell and the relationship between US and Korea. We will remember and honor the efforts and sacrifice of an entire generation of Koreans and Americans who fought together to preserve the values of self-determination, freedom and democracy in Korea as most Koreans today enjoy the fruits of liberty and prosperity.	Ernest Lee Director Korean Friendship Bell Preservation Committee
	12:20pm – 12:35pm	Korean War Memorial Ceremony at the Friendship Bell in San Pedro Mr. David Lopez, a veteran of the Korean War, will give his testimony of the Korean War. The bell striking event with Mr. Lopez will occur after the ceremony. All participants will participate in striking the Friendship Bell.	David Lopez Veteran of the Korean War

12:40pm – 02:30pm	Friendship Bell Striking, Lunch, and Kite Flying 12:40 – 01:00 pm : Bell Striking with Korean War Veterans 01:00 – 02:00 pm: Lunch and Kite Flying 02:00 – 02:50 pm: Traveling time from San Pedro to KCC	Sung Kim Director National Korean Studies Seminar Elena Paul CEO Birmingham Community Charter complex Seminar facilitator Jini Shim Assistant Director National Korean Studies Seminar
03:00pm -- 03:30pm (Video Presentation)	Imagine Your Korea / Come to Korea for an Unforgettable Exploration Presenter Mr. Mora will give a video presentation about his unforgettable experience in Korea.	Christopher Mora Marketing Coordinator Korea Tourism Organization, LA
03:30pm – 04:30pm	Discussion & Lesson Planning Time: Group Discussion Time: The facilitator will divide the whole group into 4 grade levels: Elementary, Middle, High school, and College. Participants in each group will gather to introduce themselves, share their expectations, and discuss their lesson plan ideas. They will submit one lesson plan by Friday for 1 salary point from LAUSD and 3 units from USC.	Sung Kim Jini Shim
05:00 pm - 06:30 pm	Teaching Asia: Korea -- Publication Celebration & Dinner National Korean Studies Seminar proudly invites all NKSS presenters, participants, and community sponsors to celebrate the publication of Teaching East Asia: Korea. Delicious Dinner, Gimbob Art and Refreshments will be provided afterwards. Come celebrate the publication of Teaching East Asia: Korea, a resource book published by Korean Cultural Center and the National Korean Studies Seminar (NKSS), and author/editor Mary Connor. The book provides resources to teach Korean art, history, language, literature, religion, philosophy, and political & economic development of South Korea since World War II. Mr. Willie Seung, CEO of the International Foundation of Korea University will present a donation to NKS. Enjoy the special event afterwards! Rock Chef's party Gimbap demonstration will be followed.	Mary Connor, Sung Kim, Daniel kim Jini Shim Rock H Kim, Youngmi Yi

Date	Time	Lecture Description	Presenters
Jun 30 (Fri)	08:30am – 08:40am	Announcements: Sung Kim will explain how to apply the LAUSD salary point/or the USC Continuing Education credit. She will also discuss the completion of the evaluation form.	Sung Kim Director National Korean Studies Seminar
	08:40am – 9:30am (Lecture #1)	Asian American History with a Focus on Korean American History and The L.A. Riots. Dr. Susie Woo will cover the history of Korean Americans, social characteristics of the Korean American community, and the background of 4.29 LA Riots and beyond. The lecture will relate to what is to be covered by teachers in the 5th, 8th, and 11th grade U.S. history classes in the California History-Social Science Framework.	Dr. Susie Woo Professor American Studies Cal State University, Fullerton
	9:35am – 10:25am (Lecture #2)	Starting and Sustaining Dual Immersion Program in the School District Ellen Park, Principal of HLPUSD, will explain how to start and sustain dual immersion programs from a school site administrator who taught, started, and sustained Korean, Spanish and Chinese Dual Immersion programs successfully. She will also present the establishment of Korean Dual Immersion Program in Cedarlane Academy K-8th, HLPUSD in 2017. Students in dual immersion programs become bilingual, bi-literate and multicultural in K-12 setting.	Ellen Park Principal Cedarlane Academy K-8, Hacienda La Puente Unified School District
	10:30am – 11:20am (Lecture #3)	Understanding Korean American Students and Their Families Jung Hae Kim, a principal of LAUSD, will share her insights, experiences, and observations having interacted with Korean students and their parents in Los Angeles at schools with a large influx of Korean students. Some of the topics she will cover include: three waves of Korean immigrants, diversity of Koreans, parental expectations and parental involvement. In addition, she will share some strategies of creating a culturally responsive and relevant teaching and learning environment.	Jung Hae Kim Principal Wilton Place Elementary School, LAUSD
	11:20am – 11:40am (Presentation)	Testimony about Family Story Mr. Bill Yoon, 3rd generation of Hawaii Korean immigrants, will give a testimony about his family stories and the 1st Korean American immigrants. www.koreanagifts.com	Bill Scott Yoon Koreana Gifts and Arts

11:40am – 12:50pm Lunch	Lunch: O Daesan Korean BBQ Restaurant We will move to O Daesan Korean BBQ Restaurant in Koreatown. The place is located on Olympic and Kenmore, Korean BBQ with all-you-can-eat options, plus traditional dishes in a roomy, contemporary setting. Address: 2889 W Olympic Blvd, Los Angeles, CA 90006 Phone: (213) 383-9800
01:00pm – 01:55pm	Jikji: Korean Metal Printing Dr. Eun-Hee Koo, the Honorary Ambassador of Jikji Publicity in U.S., will introduce Jikji, the extant oldest metal printed book in the world, explain the history and value of the book, and how participants can promote Jikji actively in U.S. This lecture will include a 12 minute promotional video of Jikji and why it is important to know and to teach Jikji in American schools. She will guide us how to search for errors, make corrections on the metal printing history on the website, and lead group presentations.	Dr. Eun Hee Koo President and Professor Adroit College
02:00 pm - 02:40 pm (Lecture #5)	Demonstration and Short Lecture on Taekwondo The Taekwondo master will briefly explain the historical background of Taekwondo. After a short lecture the musical Taekwondo demonstration will be performed by Taekwondo Demo Team. Teachers will have an opportunity to learn about self-defense techniques on the stage.	Sung Woo Kahng Master DK Taekwondo Demo Team
02:45pm – 03:30pm (Commentary & Presentation #6)	Traditional Tea Ceremony & Commemorative Photo Demonstrated by The Myung Won Cultural Foundation in Ari Hall. Participants will enjoy Korean traditional tea and desert (Dasik). After the tea ceremony we will take commemorative photographs together.	Youngmi Yi Director The Myung Won Cultural Foundation, Tea Ceremony
03:30pm – 04:00pm	Submit Completed Evaluation Form All participants will submit their evaluation form and lesson plan to Sung Kim and receive their refundable check. Jini Shim will assist. Make sure to write your name on the evaluation form and lesson plan. Google evaluation via online is optional. Make sure to submit all documents for LAUSD Salary Point OR USC Extension units	Sung Kim Director National Korean Studies Seminar Jini Shim Assistant Director National Korean Studies Seminar

Thank you very much for your enthusiasm!!