

*Whole Group Collaboration of emotions and thoughts while listening to music in the style of Ancient China using Figurative Language to explain their feelings.

Ancient China

“words like a picture” -Simile

“meditation and relaxation, like sitting by a lake” -Simile

“brrriing!” “I hear the sounds of an instrument that surprises me.” –Onomatopoeia

“calm, carefree, quaint” –Alliteration

“Fairy tale of hope” –Metaphor

“joyful, jolly, jumpy” –Alliteration

“artifacts coming to life, dancing in the melodies” –Personification

“roof edges curl up to the sky like a smile” –Personification

“taps and beats on repeat” –Rhyme

“Reminds me of Legend of Zelda” –Metaphor

“Magical images running through the clouds” – Personification

“Literally brought back in time to world with no electronics, but beautiful sounds”
–Hyperbole

Group 1 Poem

*Ancient China the sounds of the past
A fairy tale of hope, a dream that will last
Joyful, jolly, and jumpy yet calm, carefree, and quaint
Colors in my mind, a picture I can paint
The buildings seem to smile as they curl up to the sky
Magical images seem to fly
Taps and beats on repeat
On their journey, who will they meet?*

Group 2 Poem

Sounds on the Journey

“Ting” and “Brrriing!”

Calm and upbeat sounds in contrast

Meditation and relaxation, like sitting by a lake

A world brought to beauty by music and artifacts

Sharing their lives on the road

Music and culture jump around

No need for modern technologies

Just nature and its sounds on repeat