

*Whole Group Collaboration of emotions and thoughts while listening to music in the style of Ancient Greece using Figurative Language to explain their feelings.

Ancient Greece

“stone columns look like Palm tree trunks” – Analogy

“beats like marching” – Simile

“master crafters, blows my mind!” – Idiom

“solemn, serious, soft, strings” – Alliteration

“people are gods!” – Metaphor/Hyperbole

“warfare and weaponry” – Alliteration

“grand buildings touch the sky” – Personification

“it’s as if they are marching along the Silk Road” – Analogy

“long days that last forever” – Hyperbole

“strumming and humming” – Rhyme

Group 1 Poem

Enchanting history
A city of mystery
Stone structures all around
Many marvels to be found
Grand buildings touch the sky
Travelers on the road ask why
Strumming and humming in the air
Weaponry and warfare
So many ideas to share

Group 2 Poem

MARCHING BEATS
Do you hear that sound?
Beats like marching
Strumming and humming
Solemn, serious, soft strings
Stone giants the builders bring
Long days that seem to last forever
It's like they are marching along the Silk Road