

Handout A: Exploring Chinese Propaganda

In your small group, consider the answer to the following questions for each poster and record your responses in the chart below.

- What is being depicted in each image? What is happening?
- What message is offered and how is this message conveyed visually? Think about how color, symbols, size, expressions, exaggerations, juxtapositions are used
- What images are most appealing and move you? Explain giving specific examples
- What action does this poster inspire?

Poster 1	Poster 2	Poster 3

What patterns and Themes emerge across the different posters?

Are posters examples of propaganda? Is it effective propaganda?