

As you observe the Chinese garden, reflect upon the following questions. Be thorough and provide evidence, examples to support your ideas:

Describe the elements of the garden. What do you see in the garden?

What might the elements and arrangement of these mean? Any symbolism?

How are these elements arranged and to what effect? What might this suggest of human relationship to nature?

What aspects of Chinese philosophy do you observe? How do you know?

