

Film: "Japanese Relocation:"

What happened to Japanese/Japanese Americans during World War II and who was included in this?

What reason are given to justify this action in the film?

Where were the Japanese/ Japanese American placed and how are the conditions described in the film?

According to this film, what was life like for the people in the camps?

How are the Japanese /Japanese Americans depicted in this film?

Film: "The Untold Story of Japanese Americans During World War II"

How is the experience of the Japanese during the internment depicted in this film?

How does viewing this film change your view of what you thought the internment was like from viewing the government propaganda film "The Relocation?"