My Debate Prompt

1. Should schools have dress codes?

My name is Kaytie per.3 , I will argue that schools should have dress codes.

point

Kids should focus on their school work,rather than their appearances such as other people in school there is kids that wear inappropriate clothes.

counterpoint

Some people might say making kids wear uniforms teaches the opposite lesson. example1:The solution to problems such as gang violence is to encourage kids to think for themselves,and to not follow the crowd. example2:Most important, uniforms hinder free thinking and teach kids to conform.

rebuttal

However,there's too much competition over clothing in schools today. example1:Children should focus on learning not their physical look. example2:And there are bigger problems associated with clothes.

point

School uniforms get rid of this problem. Well,teachers at these schools say that   uniforms help students to focus on their studies rather than on their fashion dilemmas.For example in my school the uniform color is white and blue.

People say making kids wear uniforms teaches the opposite lesson.example1: The solution to problems such as gang violence is to encourage kids to think for themselves , and to not follow the crowd. example2:More important ,uniforms hinder free thinking and teach kids to conform.

rebuttal

However, these days more and more schools are making students wear uniforms. Example1: They also say that uniforms " Level the playing field " among students from different economic.Example2: well, teachers at these schools say that uniforms help students focus on their studies rather than on their fashion dilemmas.
