| The Value of Memory | | | |
|--|--|--|--|
| s who based their claims on their nced them. What were some y? | | | |
| | | | |
| why not? | | | |
| | | | |
| not? | | | |
| | | | |
| ories can be faulty? | | | |
| | | | |
| ht that be important to an | | | |
| | | | |

| Name: | Period: | Date: | |
|--|---------------------|----------------------------------|--|
| The differences between Sympathy and Empathy | | | |
| Sympathy is feeling compassion, sorrow encounters, while empathy is putting yo | | | |
| How does testimony and memory create | empathy? | | |
| | | | |
| Did you sympathize with Rebecca Chan o | or empathize with | her, and why? | |
| | | | |
| How does testimony and memory create | empathy during e | emotional interviews? | |
| | | | |
| | | | |
| How would it make you feel for people to why? |) question the inte | egrity of your first memory, and | |
| | | | |
| How do as to stime only and many are one of | owen ather with no | on a structure on trail | |
| How does testimony and memory create | empatny with re- | enactments? | |
| | | | |